Hello Legion Members,

Happy New Year to all members and their families!
Welcome to our New Year of 2024, I hope everyone had a great festive month full of holiday cheer and celebration.

We have a lot of events in the works for 2024. The "Hail to the Chief" event will be back in early March. More info will be issued once the details are set. SAL has plans for a Saint Patrick's Day Event in March. There is a future bus trip to see Grease in May. Make sure you check the bulletin Board in the Post 346 Lounge for all updates. Currently we are running "Restock The Food Pantry". There are 3 days to drop off items see the calendar of events below for date & time.

Come participate in the events as their success leads to more events for the future and supports American Legion Post 346 and its mission in general.

Auxiliary Unit 346

The auxiliary had their holiday potluck dinner with grab bag and it was a great evening had by all.

The auxiliary purchased Seventy (70) $25 Walmart gift cards for all the veterans at Soldier-on in Tinton Falls and we put them inside a handmade stocking with a Christmas card. They were delivered prior to Christmas and they all were very grateful for them.

Also, the ALA donated total of $3000 to ALA Department President's Sharon Knight, AL Department Larry Bishop and SAL Detachment Commander Keith Barns's Joint Department Project.

Happy New Year from the Sons. Here's hoping for the coming year to be a happy, healthy, and productive one.

Several events are in the planning stages. Be sure to patronize them, or lend a hand if you can. We're looking to hold fundraisers in the near future. As a member, you have input, so stop by to a meeting. Always the second Wednesday of the month at 7 pm.

Last month's Trivia Question, by Tom Romano: What was the name of November 11th, before it was called Veterans Day? Answer: Armistice Day. It was the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month that the Armistice was called that ended World War One. (The new version of the movie "All Quiet On The Western Front" touches on negotiations between the sides that brought about the ceasefire.)

This month's Trivia Question: What popular car of the 1960s was named after a WW2 fighter plane? Answer next month.

Some of you haven't renewed your dues for the new year. Stop by to a meeting or drop it into the SAL dues box in the downstairs hallway, or send it in by snail mail to SAL Adjutant, 21 Gully Road, Neptune NJ 07753. No dues increase, still $20.
