Commander's Column

Comrades and Legion Family,

Happy Early St Patrick's Day to our Legion Family, I am looking forward to warmer weather and being able to get back outside.

See the calendar, we have a lot of events coming up this month. This is to include our SAL corn beef and cabbage on Saturday March 15th. We have brought back Saturday night dinners, so stop by for some good food and camaraderie, and if you would like to help in the kitchen, contact Bruce and you can be scheduled.

We need people to gamble down in Atlantic City, get on the Bus that AL Lopez coordinates and try to win some money, if we do not fill the bus soon, we might lose it... Next trip is on March 10th. I look forward to seeing you all at Friday Bingo on March 21st as well, see Glenn for more info.

We are doing great on membership this year. Let us keep pushing forward and move towards 100%.

Finally, I would like to end this article. Thanking the Color Guard for marching in the cold during Belmar Saint Paddy's Day parade and representing the American Legion. Excellent job.

For God and country, Commander Wil
