Commander's Column

Legion Family,

Happy beginning of the summer season here on the Jersey Shore. I hope everyone had a great month of May, and I can't believe we're already moving into the month of June. I know everyone took a few minutes of their time on Memorial Day weekend to HONOR the fallen and to thank them for our freedom. I want to thank Heath, Gary, and the Colorguard for taking the lead and providing a great ceremony on Memorial Day to honor the Veterans. As well, I want to thank the Poppy ladies for their continuing support of our veterans, and also everyone who took time out of their schedules to man the table at ShopRite.

If you wanna attend the Legion night at the Blue Claws on Thursday the 24th of July, please reach out to me before June 20th to reserve your tickets at $20 with tailgate starting at 4:30.

Since we will be at convention on flag day, we will hold our Flag retirement ceremony, on 17 June but that date may change due to availability of Legion family members. Stop by the post to get more information for ongoing fundraisers that are happening. By the way, July is right around the corner and that is the beginning of our next membership drive for the upcoming year.

For God and Country, Commander Will

Thanks to the flag crews who made those cemeteries look great, honoring those Veterans interred there. The cleanup of the Newman/White Cemetery, where a local WW1 Veteran is buried, has begun. Work dates will be announced. Volunteers are always welcomed for some landscaping duties.

Last Month's Trivia by Tom Romano: What fort was bombarded by the British, that inspired Francis Scott Key to write the poem that later became the Star Spangled Banner? Answer: Fort McHenry. This month's question: What two Allied landings took place on the Italian mainland in WW2?

Thanks to Freehold Bob and Joyce for their help with the Saturday dinners. Kitchen crew is always needed. Glen Brown has details on signing up. The dinners are a nice fundraiser, let's keep them going.

Going to Convention? See you there. Our annual Flag Retirement will occur afterward.

Gary S. Crawford PC
Commander SAL Squadron 346
