POST 346 NEWS AND INFO

Hello Legion Members,

Another year is about to close. Farewell to 2025, hello to 2026. It's been a good run but we can always do better. We will make sure we continue to have the same activities as previous years but we will always be looking to add new ones. It's your participation that guides the ship (Sorry for the Navy [MARINE CORPS Always!] reference).

If you want to volunteer reach out to a post member and let them know you are interested. It can be as simple as cleaning up after an event or rental. Your participation in an event is also greatly appreciated.

The Neptune American Legion Post 346 & it's members wishes you a Happy Holidays and we hope to see you at Egg Nog Sunday 12/21 as well as Irish New Years 12/31.

Any specific topics that need to be posted can be emailed to me at: ALPost346.editor@gmail.com

Thanks, James

Happy Holidays from all of us to all of you.

Remember why and how we Americans enjoy these holidays so much of the rest of the world doesn't, or can't. Remember who makes this possible, and give thanks to them for all we have. Send a prayer and a salute to them.

Last month's trivia answer: Who were the American Indian Code Talkers in World War ONE? The Choctaw.

Tom Romano's Trivia for this month:

When surrounded by Germans at Bastogne and asked to surrender, what was General Anthony McAuliffe's reply?
